Richmond, Virginia (January 3, 2006) — Cadmus Communications Corporation (NASDAQ/NM: CDMS) announced today that John Miller has joined the organization as Senior Vice President – Sales and Marketing for the Publisher Services Group. Mr. Miller joins Cadmus from Banta Corporation, where he served as the Senior Vice President of Sales and Marketing in the Publications Group. After receiving his MBA from the University of Chicago Graduate School of Business with a concentration in finance and international business, Mr. Miller joined the Corporate Business Development department of Harris Trust and Savings Bank in 1989. In 1990, he joined RR Donnelley & Sons as a Senior Sales Representative. Following a successful sales career, he was promoted to Vice President of Sales for the Midwest Region. In this capacity, Mr. Miller reported directly to the President of Banta's Publication Group and was responsible for all sales and marketing activities for this group.

In a related announcement, Cadmus announced that Hai Tran has accepted a position as Senior Vice President of Strategic Development and Emerging Solutions for Cadmus. Mr. Tran was previously Vice President of Business Development of Cadmus' Publisher Services Group. Working directly with Bruce Thomas, Cadmus' President and Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Tran will be responsible for driving the implementation of Cadmus' strategy with particular emphasis on acquisitions and strategic alliances in North America and overseas. In addition to these responsibilities, Mr. Tran will retain responsibility for Cadmus' fast-growing Emerging Solutions division.

Bruce Thomas, President and Chief Executive Officer of Cadmus, remarked, "Both of these moves are exciting steps forward for Cadmus. Obviously, I am delighted to have John Miller join our team, as he brings us a vast amount of sales management experience as well as a very successful track record. Particularly with our growing domestic and offshore print capabilities, John can help us gain market share and drive top line growth at Cadmus. At the same time, I also am excited to have Hai engaged full time in driving our Emerging Solutions division and our overall strategy. We are operating in a fast-changing publishing market. As that market changes, our Emerging Solutions products are rapidly gaining acceptance. In addition, we are seeing an increasing number of more attractive opportunities to expand our business through global alliances and acquisitions. With Hai's leadership, I am confident that we will more effectively capitalize on these near and longer-term opportunities."
