Cenveo Completes Acquisition of Nashua Corporation

STAMFORD, CT – (September 15, 2009) – Cenveo, Inc. (NYSE: CVO) announced today that it completed its previously announced acquisition of New Hampshire-based Nashua Corporation (NASDAQ: NSHA), a recognized leader in the label and specialty paper markets.

The combined company is one of the largest manufacturers of pharmaceutical, scale and shelf labels in the United States, serving customers in the pharmacy, retail, and grocery markets as well as a leader in the point of sale and wide-format printing markets.

Under the terms of acquisition, which was approved today at a meeting of Nashua shareholders, each share of common stock of Nashua will be converted into (i) $0.75 per share in cash and (ii) 1.265 shares of Cenveo common stock.

Robert G. Burton, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer stated:

"Today marks the next step in achieving our goal of diversifying our product lines into the growth areas of the printing industry. We are excited about the benefits of this acquisition for all of our stakeholders and welcome our new shareholders and employees. This acquisition brings together two industry leaders, both of which have much to offer one another. We are impressed by the degree of synergy that is available and are working to ensure that we combine the best of both organizations."

Statements made in this release, other than those concerning historical financial information, may be considered “forward-looking statements,” which are based upon current expectations and involve a number of assumptions, risks and uncertainties that could cause the actual results to differ materially from such forward-looking statements. In view of such uncertainties, investors should not place undue reliance on our forward-looking statements. Such statements speak only as of the date of this release, and we undertake no obligation to update any forward-looking statements made herein. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from management’s expectations include, without limitation: (i) a decline of our consolidated or individual reporting units operating performance as a result of the current economic environment could affect the results of our operations and financial position, including the impairment of our goodwill and other long-lived assets; (ii) our substantial indebtedness could impair our financial condition and prevent us from fulfilling our business obligations; (iii) our ability to service or refinance our debt; (iv) the terms of our indebtedness imposing significant restrictions on our operating and financial flexibility; (v) additional borrowings are available to us that could further exacerbate our risk exposure from debt; (vi) our ability to successfully integrate acquisitions; (vii) intense competition in our industry; (viii) the general absence of long-term customer agreements in our industry, subjecting our business to quarterly and cyclical fluctuations; (ix) factors affecting the U.S. postal services impacting demand for our products; (x) the availability of the Internet and other electronic media affecting demand for our products; (xi) increases in paper costs and decreases in its availability; (xii) our labor relations; (xiii) compliance with environmental rules and regulations; and (xiv) dependence on key management personnel. This list of factors is not exhaustive, and new factors may emerge or changes to the foregoing factors may occur that would impact our business. Additional information regarding these and other factors can be found in Cenveo, Inc.’s periodic filings with the SEC, which are available at <http://www.cenveo.com>.
